9 TIM GALLI,

10 Plaintiff,

11 vs.

12 PITTSBURG UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT,
 13 BARBARA WILSON AND PERCY MCGEE,

14 Defendants.

15 CASE NO: 3:09-cv-03775-JSW

16 PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR 17 ADMINISTRATIVE RELIEF TO 18 CONDUCT ADDITIONAL DISCOVERY
 19 WITH RESPECT TO DEFENDANTS'
 20 MOTION FOR SUMMARY
 21 JUDGMENT AS TO DUE PROCESS

22 Filed concurrently with:

- 23 1) SUPPORTING DECLARATION OF 24 MARK L. VENARDI; and 25 2) [PROPOSED] ORDER

26 Plaintiff, Tim Galli, respectfully moves this court for administrative relief under Local 27 Rule 7-11, seeking an order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(d)(2) allowing Plaintiff additional time to 28 obtain declarations or to conduct additional discovery with respect to Defendants' motion for summary judgment ("MSJ") as to the due process issue.

29 I. Background

30 Plaintiff seeks leave to conclude discovery with respect to his subpoenas issued to RGM and 31 Associates ("RGM"), Ralph Caputo and Merrill Lynch ("third parties"). The discovery will provide 32 information regarding: (1) Percy McGee's financial relationship with Dr. Barbara Wilson, RGM, 33 and Caputo and (2) McGee's alleged bias when he voted to take action against Plaintiff.

34 The parties were ordered to re-brief Defendants' MSJ on the due process issue. Defendants 35 are to move by June 3, 2011 and Plaintiff's Opposition is due by June 17, 2011. (Doc. No. 98, May 36 17, 2011 Order.) No new trial date is currently set. (Doc. No. 99, May 18, 2011 Clerk Order.)

1 Plaintiff alleges Defendants violated his due process rights when McGee voted to suspend 2 and terminate Galli from his employment because McGee was biased due to his financial 3 relationship with RGM, a PUSD contractor, RGM's president Caputo, and Dr. Wilson. (FAC, pp.
 4 24-29; 25:21-25.) Defendants allege they took action due to an incident where Plaintiff urinated on 5 the car of RGM employee Gino Elliot. (Doc. No. 81, MSJ, pp. 20:14-22 – 21:1-15.) At the time
 6 McGee voted, he was employed as a financial planner at Merrill Lynch and managed investment 7 accounts for RGM, Caputo and Dr. Wilson. Defendants' MSJ alleges McGee was not biased and 8 had no financial conflict. (MSJ, pp. 21-24.)

9 Plaintiff issued subpoenas to the third-parties to discover facts related to McGee's bias, 10 which are essential to Plaintiff's opposition to Defendants' MSJ. Because of numerous meet and 11 confer discussions with RGM's and Caputo's attorney, Plaintiff had a good faith belief that the 12 third-parties would comply with the subpoena. To date, Plaintiff has yet to receive discovery 13 responses from the third-parties.

14 Plaintiff first issued his subpoenas to the third-parties in August 2010. (Doc. No. 100, 15 Declaration of Brian A. Noble in Support of Motion of RGM & Associates and Ralph Caputo to 16 Quash the Deposition Subpoena for Testimony And Product of Business Records ("Noble 17 Declaration"), Exhibit A, pp. 14-18; Merrill Lynch subpoena attached as Exhibit A to Declaration 18 of Mark Venardi in Support of Plaintiff's Motion For Administrative Relief To Conduct Additional 19 Discovery With Respect To Defendants' Motion For Summary Judgment ("Venardi Declaration").)

20 The history of Plaintiff's RGM's and Caputo's meet and confer conferences regarding these 21 subpoenas are summarized in the parties' correspondence and e-mail communications. (See, Noble 22 Declaration, Exhibit B, pp. 19-36; Venardi Declaration, Exhibit B, 16-17.)

23 As a result of the meet on confer conferences, on January 20, 2011, Plaintiff issued new 24 subpoenas to the third parties. (January 20, 2011 subpoenas to RGM, Caputo and Merrill Lynch, 25 attached as Exhibits C, pp. 38-40, Exhibit D, pp. 42-44 to Noble Declaration and Exhibit C to 26 Venardi Declaration, respectively.) The parties conducted further meet and confer and conferences, 27 which Plaintiff believed would lead to the production of the subpoenaed documents. (E-mail 28 correspondence, Venardi Declaration, Exhibit B, pp. 1-16.) On May 12, 2011, Plaintiff informed

1 RGM's and Caputo's attorney that due to the delay in resolving the issues, he would be sending a
 2 joint letter regarding the discovery dispute. (May 14, 2011 e-mail, attached as Exhibit B to Venardi

4 RGM's and Caputo's objections also prevented Plaintiff from receiving the subpoenaed
 5 documents from Merrill Lynch. (See Noble Declaration, Exhibit F, pp. 35, 50.) After several meet 6 and confer discussions with Merrill Lynch's attorney, Plaintiff was informed Merrill Lynch would 7 be withholding its subpoena production because RGM, Caputo and Dr. Wilson objected. (Venardi 8 Declaration, ¶ 5). Neither Merrill Lynch, nor Dr. Wilson issued written objections to the subpoenas.
 9 (Venardi Declaration, ¶ 6).

10 On May 20, 2011, Plaintiff served all interested parties with Plaintiff's portion of a joint 11 statement of the discovery dispute regarding the subpoenas issued. (May 20, 2011 letter attached, 12 Exhibit D to Venardi Declaration) The parties have completed their arguments and once signatures 13 are finalized, the joint statement of discovery dispute will be filed. On May 20, 2011, RGM and 14 Caputo filed a motion to quash the RGM and Caputo subpoenas. (Doc. No. 100, RGM and Caputo 15 Motion to Quash.)

16 II. ARGUMENT

17 Rule 56(d) provides a device for litigants to avoid summary judgment when the non-movant 18 needs to discover affirmative evidence necessary to oppose the motion. See Garrett v. San 19 Francisco, 818 F.2d 1515, 1518 (9th Cir.1987). Specifically, Rule 56(d) provides that if a 20 nonmovant shows by affidavit or declaration that, for specified reasons, it cannot present facts 21 essential to justify its opposition, the court may defer considering the motion or allow the taking of 22 additional discovery. The requesting party must show: (1) it has set forth in affidavit form the 23 specific facts it hopes to elicit from further discovery; (2) the facts sought exist; and (3) the sought-
 24 after facts are essential to oppose summary judgment. Family Home & Fin. Ctr., Inc. v. Fed. Home
 25 Loan Mortg. Corp., 525 F.3d 822, 827 (9th Cir. 2008).

26 The documents subpoenaed from Merrill Lynch will lead to existing facts regarding 27 McGee's and Dr. Wilson's financial relationship (Venardi Declaration, ¶ 7) because Defendants 28 admit Dr. Wilson was McGee's client. (Defendants' Amended Responses to Plaintiff's First Set of

1 Requests for Admissions (“DARPRA”), Nos. 61, 62, attached as Exhibit E to Declaration of Mark
 2 Venardi.) Defendants further admit the financial relationship created a pecuniary interest for 3 McGee. (DARPA, No. 69.) Furthermore, McGee admitted that in 2008 the amount of his earnings
 4 from his management of Dr. Wilson’s accounts was between $2,000.00 and $5,000.00. (Deposition
 5 of Percy McGee, 127:12-20, attached as Exhibit F to Venardi Declaration.) Plaintiff believes that 6 the subpoenaed records are essential to his opposition to Defendants’ MSJ on the due process issue 7 because they will provide the actual value of Dr. Wilson’s financial accounts and the amount of 8 earnings McGee received for his management. (Venardi Declaration, ¶ 9.)

9 The documents subpoenaed from RGM, Caputo and Merrill Lynch will lead to existing facts 10 regarding McGee’s financial relationship with RGM and Caputo (Venardi Declaration, ¶ 7) because 11 McGee admitted that RGM and Caputo were his clients. (McGee Depo., 115:2-4.) McGee also 12 admitted that in 2009 he personally earned between $2,000 and $5,000 for his management of the 13 RGM account (McGee Depo., 122:2-5, 9-14) and between $5,000 and $10,000 for his management 14 of the Caputo account. (McGee Depo., 122:10-14.) McGee further admitted that he discontinued his 15 financial relationship with RGM and Caputo because he was advised by an attorney that because 16 RGM was a contractor for PUSD, there was a conflict. (McGee Depo., 110:14-22.) Plaintiff
 17 believes that the records subpoenaed are essential to his opposition to Defendants’ MSJ on the due 18 process issue because they will provide information regarding the value of the financial accounts 19 that McGee managed for RGM and Caputo and the amount of earnings he received for his 20 management. (Venardi Declaration, ¶ 10.)

21 Plaintiff also believes that the subpoenaed documents are essential to his opposition to 22 Defendants’ MSJ on the due process issues because they will demonstrate that McGee had a 23 conflict of interest, and thus was biased, when he voted to take action against Plaintiff. (Venardi 24 Declaration, ¶ 11.) A decision maker who stands to gain or lose from a decision is clearly 25 disqualified from acting as a decision maker. See Breakzone Billiards v. City of Torrance, 81 Cal.
 26 App. 4th 1205, 1235 (2000). Plaintiff has alleged that in order to maintain his financial relationship, 27 McGee had an interest in voting in favor of Dr. Wilson’s recommendation and taking action against 28 Plaintiff for the incident involving an RGM employee.

 Fax: (925) 937-3905

1 Plaintiff also believes that the subpoenaed documents are essential to his opposition to 2 Defendants' MSJ because they may demonstrate that McGee violated the Political Reform Act
 3 ("PRA") and related regulations when he voted to take action against Plaintiff. (Venardi 4 Declaration, ¶ 12.) The PFA provides that, "a public official has a financial interest in a 5 decision...if it is reasonably foreseeable that the decision will have a material financial effect...on 6 any source of income... of $500.00 or more...received by the public official within 12 months prior 7 to the time when a decision is made." CA Govt. § 87103. The California Fair Trade Practices
 8 Commission ("CFTPC") has also promulgated similar conflict of interest regulations. See Cal.
 9 Code Regs. tit. 2, §§ 18700, 18703.3.

10 Plaintiff believes the subpoenaed documents are critical to his opposition to summary
 11 judgment because they may demonstrate that under the PRA and the related regulations, McGee
 12 had a financial interest, and would have been biased, in voting to suspend and recommend Plaintiff
 13 for termination. McGee has already testified that he believed that he earned over $500.00 in income 14 his management of the Dr. Wilson, RGM and Caputo accounts. McGee also admitted he had 15 concerns relative to the CFTPC. (McGee Depo., 137:4-6.) Specifically, McGee was concerned that, 16 "[i]f he had anything with any type of conflict, then from that you shouldn't make any decisions on 17 that same particular issue for a 12-month period." (McGee Depo., 138:18-21.)

18 As a result of the aforesaid facts and good faith beliefs, the records from RGM, Caputo and 19 Merrill Lynch are essential to justify Plaintiff's opposition to Defendants' motion for summary 20 judgment on the due process issue.

21 II. Conclusion

22 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this court grant administrative 23 relief pursuant to Local Rule 7-11 and allow Plaintiff additional time to complete discovery
 24 regarding his subpoenas issued to RGM and Associates, Ralph Caputo and Merrill Lynch.

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING
 PROPOSED ADMINISTRATIVE RELIEF

15 The Court having considered the Plaintiff, Tim Galli's, motion for administrative relief with 16 regard to allowing Plaintiff additional time to obtain declarations or to conduct additional discovery
 17 with respect to Defendants' motion for summary judgment as to the due process issue, and all 18 papers filed by the parties in connection therewith, and the Court further having considered the 19 arguments of counsel for and against the motion, hereby orders that:

20 (a) plaintiff is granted to leave to conduct additional discovery with respect his 21 subpoenas issued to RGM and Associates, Ralph Caputo and Merrill Lynch, pending this Court's 22 rulings with respect to: (1) the parties' joint statement of the discovery dispute regarding Plaintiff's 23 subpoenas issued to RGM and Associates, Ralph Caputo and Merrill Lynch and (2) RGM and 24 Associates and Ralph Caputo's motion to quash; and

25 (b) the court will provide new dates for the filing of Plaintiff's opposition and 26 defendants reply to Defendants' motion for summary judgment as to the due process issue
 27 subsequent to this Court's rulings with respect to: (1) the parties' joint statement of the discovery
